He Knows Your Name
Psalm 139:13-16
Sermon Outline

1. God’s Finger Prints Shaped Us (vs. 13, 15):
   1. God, on His own initiative, based on His design created us.
   2. God created the inner most parts of our body.
   3. God designed our personalities - When used figuratively, the term refers to the innermost aspects of personality.
   4. God caused a biological body to form and grow, with a focus on the structure of the body, as a figurative extension of weaving together a piece of cloth with yarn or thread.
   5. God, like the growing together of hedges, weaved us together to have our present body type.
   6. From the pass to the present, with no possible change in sight kept our frame from being known. God did not plan and does not plan to let anyone know why He decided to make us the way He did.
   7. This is God fashioning by laboring with a deep commitment to produce us to be a part of human history. This demonstrates purpose in human history. This was done without any interference from anyone (secret).
   8. God made us based on His design, on His initiative with no interference from anyone (Psalm 127:3).

2. God’s Supreme Understanding Designed Us (vs. 14b, 16-18):
   1. God, even though holy all by Himself, reverence the process of designing us. God gave this a lot of thought and a lot of respect.
   2. This could mean, since all things came through Christ, that Christ respected God’s decision for how we should be shaped.
   3. The basic meaning is not merely an unusual wonderful act or even the degree of astonishment, but the clear-cut exhibition of God's capable care in accomplishing something - Is used primarily with God as the subject. He does things which are beyond the bounds of human powers or expectations.
   4. Beyond the bounds of human power or imagination God demonstrated His astonishing ability to produce man.
   5. The fact that David is breathing and living each day is a testimony that he is fearfully made by God’s wonderful works.
   6. God has carefully and completely inspected and has accepted David’s unformed matter in his mother’s womb.
   7. What God has engraved in His completed book is unchangeable and will be remembered forever.
   8. God’s days for us has been established in the pass with no change in mind.
   9. God’s manner of thinking was established in the pass and is set for the present and future. They are of great value and completely respected.
10. God’s thoughts are mighty and too numerous to understand all the decisions He made in forming us and no one can change that.
11. If we try to learn God’s thoughts, it will continually increase with no end in sight.

3. Give Thanks to God (vs. 14a):

1. As an expression of thanks or praise, it is a natural part of ritual or public worship as well as personal praise to God - The primary meaning of this root is "to acknowledge or confess sin, God's character and works, or man's character."
2. We must confess our trust in God by giving Him praise, with no end in sight, for what He has done for us.
3. God’s meticulous work to bring us into existence should be one of the key reasons for worship. It should make worship a personal praise and thanksgiving to God.
