Trouble Don’t Last Always
Psalm 30:1-5
Sermon Outline

1. God’s Love Revives us (vs. 1-3):

1. David speaks highly of God’s accomplishments and gives Him glory.
2. David felt his life had gotten so low it was like being put down in a pit with no help to get out, but God lifted him out.
3. He is the one who has all authority and power and seeks a covenant relationship with His people.
4. God caused David to spontaneously, with excessive happiness, explicitly demonstrate gladness.
5. The one who has all authority and power and has the very nature of the Supreme God.
6. God has become a personal experience.
7. The Psalmist affirms that God is the true God and should be reverence and held in high esteem.
8. After all the years of God powerfully blessing day by day to the point of establishing his throne forever, the Lord has proven Himself to be the only God and is truly someone who faithfully sought relationship with Israel.
9. David intensely and desperately pleaded with God to deliver him on a consistent basis.
10. God provided to David grace and forgiveness so that his health was restored.
11. God was completely committed to bringing David back emotionally from that very low state.
12. God revitalize David’s inner being so that his life was preserved.
13. David was near death emotionally and physically. This is a place to be dreaded because no one praised God there (Ps. 6:5). Deliverance from it was a blessing (Ps. 30:3). Everything about it was negative, which is why it was easy for it to be called hell later.
14. God was completely committed to keeping David’s soul preserved and restored so that he could continue to have a personal relationship with God. This revival takes place because of God’s Word.
15. To go down to the pit without any help from God, is to be in a place where there is no hope of ever getting out.

1. His Favor is For Lifetime (vs. 4-5):

1. We are commanded to sing songs of praise, with instruments, that are put together with much thought and rhythm.
2. He is the one who has all authority and power and seeks a covenant relationship with His people.
3. “The Godly Ones” are faithful believers of God’s Word who by this demonstrate their love for God.
4. Because there was an experience with God, those who are in the festival desire to make a continuous acknowledge and make a declaration of all the works the Lord God has done.
5. God’s name is set aside only upon to Him. It is to be worshipped because it is serves as a memorial that deserves great honor because of all the great things God has done.
6. God’s high and intense emotional response to what has been done.
7. God’s anger compared to eternity is just for an instant.
8. David is appreciative of God’s kindness towards him especially since his life depended on it.
9. God’s kindness provides health, prosperity and vitality continues until a person dies.
10. Compared to God’s favor, David’s pain that led him to crying loudly only last for a short time. His pain last like staying in a hotel. God’s kindness causes it to check out.
11. We are to shout for joy, which means, to be in a joyful state making music with loud voices praising God.
