A. First Fruits (vs. 1-2):
1. Then it shall be – Once they enter the land, giving to God is the first thing they must do.
2. Enter the land – The land is a gift from the Lord God (vs. 1,2).
3. First of all, the produce – This is the choicest of the ripened crop.
   a) It is from the work of our hands.
   b) It is because the Lord has given it.
   c) It is from our gross income and it is our best.
   d) It is before worship and purposeful for worship.

B. Offer Up (vs. 3-4):
1. Go to the priest – The offering is for the work of His temple.
2. I declare this day – It is for the day that the Lord sets aside.
3. Which the Lord swore – The offering celebrates God’s faithfulness.
4. From your hand – It is for God’s work based on His word.
5. Before the altar – It must be an acceptable gift before God.
6. The Lord your God – An offering magnifies our relationship with God.
7. The Lord your God – Our offering demonstrates respect and reverence for His provision.

C. Reverence God’s Faithfulness (vs. 5-9):
1. You shall answer and say in the presence of God – Giving begins worship; remaining in His presence continues worship
2. You shall answer and say in the presence of God – Worship is interactive because God has done great things:
   a) Reflect on how He has saved us.
   b) Reflect on how He has rescued us from hell.
   c) Reflect on how He has blessed us.
   d) Reflect on how He has sustained us in hard times.
   e) Reflect on His faithfulness.
   f) Reflect on His goodness.

D. It’s a Sacrifice of Praise (vs. 10-11):
1. Now behold – Have a time of giving to magnify our obedience to God.
2. I have brought the first – We must be obedient in giving because it is our first act of worship.
3. Before the Lord our God – It’s all because of Him and for Him.
4. Worship before – Worship is meaningless without our best being offered.
5. Everyone rejoices in all the good – Outward signs of gladness and excitement are welcome when true worship is completed.
6. Has given you – When we give, never forget who gave first.
7. Household – This kind of worship excites God.
8. Household – This kind of worship blesses our entire household.